SYMPOSIUM PROGRAM

9:30 – 10:00 Coffee and Opening Remark by the Director of the Asian Studies Program

10 – 12 Morning Session on Language and Linguistics

  Matthew Dryer (Linguistics): “How are Languages of Asia Different from Languages Elsewhere in the World?”
  EunHee Lee (Linguistics, Asian Studies): “Topic Prominence in East Asian Languages”
  Mitsuaki Shimojo (Linguistics): “Omissions and Politeness in Japanese”
  Jiangqiang Wang (Library and Information Studies, School of Education): “Supporting Access to Digital Resources across Language Barriers”

12:00 – 1:00 Lunch

1:00 – 3:00 Afternoon Session on Discourse and Culture

  Jang Wook Huh (English): “Translating Sentimentality Across the Pacific”
  Anya Bernstein (Law School): “The Language of Democracy in the Taiwanese Bureaucracy”
  Kristin Stapleton (History): "Nation, Province, City, World: Geographical Frameworks in Chinese Discourses of Socialism”

3:00 Closing Remark

WWW.ASIANSTUDIES.BUFFALO.EDU

All Welcome
Lunch Provided